

I am a customer of XM Radio and think it the greatest thing ever. I travel a lot and I hated to have to find a radio station when I went from city to city. There is nothing like being able to stay one station while traveling 9 or 10 hours. XM offers a large choice of stations to listen to. Please do not let the NAB bully XM and Sirrus out of business because they offer better programming.